TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF GENERAL SALE

INSPECTION: Bidders are invited and urged to inspect the property to be sold prior to submitting Bids. Property will be available for inspection at the place and time specified in the Bid Invitation. The Government of Guam will not be obligated to furnish any labor of such purpose. In no case will failure to inspect constitute grounds for a claim or for the withdrawal of a bid after opening.

CONDITIONS OF PROPERTY: All property listed herein is offered for sales "As Is" and without resource against the Government of Guam. The description is based on the best available information, but the Government makes no guarantee, warranty, expressed or implied, for its fitness for any use or purpose, and no claim will be considered for allowance or adjustments, or for recessions of the sale based upon failure of the property to correspond with the standard expected. This is not a sale by example.

CONSIDERATION OF BIDS: The Government of Guam reserves the right to reject any and all bids, to waive any technical defects in bids, unless otherwise specified by the Government or by the bidder, to accept any one item or group of items in the bid, as may be in the best interest of the government. Unless otherwise specified, bids must be submitted on any or all items. The agent shall have the authority to reject or award the bid in whole or in part for any one or more items if he determines it is in the public's interest. Bid negotiations may be considered.

BID GUARANTEE: The bidder agrees that (1) the bid will not be withdrawn within the specified for acceptance after the opening of bids, and will during that time remain firm and irrevocable and that (2) the bidder will pay to the Government the purchase price of the property in accordance with the bid, if accepted.

PAYMENT: Payment for a full purchase price within five (5) working days after receipt of "Notice of Award" shall be made by postal money order, cashier's check or certified check drawn from a local bank and made payable to the: Treasure of Guam. Payment of cash in the amount of $500.00 and below is acceptable. Payment in the excess of $500.00 shall be made by postal money order, cashier's check or certified check. If the successful bidder fails to make full and final payment as herein provided, the Government reserves the right upon written notice to the successful bidder to sell or otherwise dispose of any or all of such property in the Government's possession and to charge the loss to the account of the defaulting bidder. The original purchase will in no way be released from full compliance with the terms and conditions of the sale of the resale property.

REMOVAL OF PROPERTY: The purchaser shall be entitled to obtain the property upon vesting of title to the property to him, unless otherwise specified in the Invitation to Bid. The purchaser shall assume all risk in connection with the performance of this contract and shall hold the Government harmless for any injury to persons or damage to property arising from on in connection with his performance under this contract. The purchaser shall remove the property at his own expense and shall reimburse the Government for any damage to Government property caused by the removal operations of the purchase. If the purchaser fails to remove the property within fifteen (15) working days as specified, the government shall have the right to charge the purchaser and collect upon demand a reasonable storage charge if the property is stored, or on premises owned or controlled by the Government, or store the property else where for the purchaser's account and all costs incident to such storing, including handling and moving charges, shall be borne by the purchase. After all attempts have been made by the Government to have the property removed by the successful bidder, the Government has the right to sell, to the next highest bidder, or place item on the next sale. Proceeds from the sale will be deposited to the General Fund and the defaulting successful bidder shall have no right to collect the amount from such sales proceeds. No property shall be released to the successful bidder without the presence of a GSA representative.

Default: Should the bidder fail to pick up the awarded bid items within the time specified on the bid, the Government will issue a "Notice of Default" to the awarded bidder notifying the awardee of ten (10) days to cure. After the (10) days elapsed and the awarded bidder does not cure, the Government will then assess storage fees at $25.00 per calendar day for each item number of the bid award. The bidder then has five (5) days to pay the assessed storage fees. If the bidder does not settle his account within the five (5) days allowed, the bid items will be awarded to the next highest bidder or placed on the next sale. If the default is not cured within the time specified and the bidder does not make any attempt to settle his account, the Government has the right to prohibit the bidder from participating in future bids with the Government of Guam.

INSTRUCTIONS TO BIDDERS:

Bidders: No employee of the owning or disposing agency to shall be entitled to participate in the Bid Sale. In Addition, GSA employees and their immediate family are also ineligible to participate in any inspections and or any Surplus Bids. Immediate family is defined as a Spouse, and their children.

Envelope containing bids must be sealed and marked in the upper left had corner with the name and address of the bidder, identification of the invitation, and date and hour of opening.

Bid should be filled out in ink, indelible pencil or typewritten.

Negotiated Sales: Property may be sold by negotiation, subject to obtaining such competition as is feasible, prices are set forth at a discounted percentage of the minimum price as determined by the Chief Procurement Officer. Negotiated sales will be processed as a regular Surplus Sealed Bid.
